- Adjectives used substantively

When you use neuter plural endings on an adjective when it's on its own; it turns into a noun.

1. multus, -a, -um; multa → many things
2. verus, -a, -um; "true" → vera → true things / the truth
3. parvus, -a, -um; "small" → parva → small things.

Ex. vera dico. "I say true things".

Ex. multa verba dico / I say many words
multa dico / I say many things.
